PCCYFS CALL FOR SPEAKERS

PCCYFS is seeking HR practitioners to share their insights, expertise and experiences with professionals from across Pennsylvania. Speakers should be able to educate, engage and inspire our audience through interactive presentations or workshops providing rich takeaways for attendees.

If this sounds like you, please submit a speaking proposal for our 2024 PCCYFS Human Resources Summit taking place November 19, 2024.

The PCCYFS HR Summit will be a one-day in-person event with multiple sessions. The sessions are expected to run for about 50 minutes (40-minute presentation with 10 minute Q&A.) Attendees will primarily consist of human resources professionals at all levels who operate in the field of human services and children's services, especially in child welfare, juvenile justice, and children's mental/behavioral health. They may represent private providers, non-profit agencies, counties, government agencies, or other stakeholders in these fields.

Selected speakers are not paid for their presentations, they will receive:

- Complimentary admission for up to two presenters at the event, including snacks and lunch.
- Recognition in PCCYFS marketing efforts and pccyfs.org.

Please email questions to hbgoffice@pccyfs.org. An email announcement will be made when registration opens.

The Pennsylvania Council of Children, Youth and Family Services (PCCYFS) is the collective voice for private agencies that serve Pennsylvania's children and their families. PCCYFS represents nearly 100 private agencies employing more than 12,000 professionals statewide. Services include foster care/kinship care, adoption, residential treatment, behavioral health services, education, counseling, independent living/transitional living services, and others.

Sessions will be 50 minutes (40-minute presentations with 10 minute Q&A)

Please attach a current resume or vitae for each presenter to your email.
